

Using the 5 A's Motivational Interviewing Model to Increase Cancer Screening

The 5 A's is a successful motivational interviewing model designed to assist smoking cessation counselors discuss quitting with smokers. The model translates well to coaching patients to get screened for cancer, especially colorectal, cervical and breast cancer screenings.

